Saint John Vianney Academy is a classical educational program for grades K-12, founded by lay Catholics to assist families in their fulfillment of their primary responsibility for educating their children. We seek to form students in faith, reason, and virtue through a classical education as the truths of our Holy Catholic Church are shared with young souls.

The mission of Saint John Vianney Academy is to foster within the students growth in the theological, intellectual, and moral virtues.

- The ONLY Classical, Hybrid, Homeschool program faithful to the Catholic tradition in our region!
- Institute for Catholic Liberal Education (I.C.L.E.) member.
- Affordable rates for quality, classical education.
- Professional teachers provide classical curriculum instruction to students on campus (T/Th), with emphasis on the facilitation of the Socratic method of discussion with peers.
- Parents follow St John Vianney Academy's created syllabus and teacher-directed curriculum covering all core subjects at home (M/Wed).
- St. John Vianney Academy is the only educational program in Kern County using textbooks from the Catholic Textbook Project.

We look forward to sharing St. John Vianney Academy with you!
